THE BLESSED RICVERA MIDDLE SCHOOL

MUSIC SCHOLARSHIP 2020

The Music Scholarship has been named after Blessed Ricvera who was a woman of noble birth and marriage who became the first Norbertine nun in 1121. After her death, Blessed Ricvera's grave became the site of miracles, most notably for the miraculous flowers that grew there.

The College offers Middle School Music Scholarships to students already enrolled and accepted for Year 7 in 2020 at St Norbert College. The Scholarships will be offered to students of high musical ability.

SCHOLARSHIP VALUE

Middle School Music Scholarships cover full or 50% instrumental tuition fees and are tenable for Years 7 - 9 subject to student performance each year. A scholarship audition is conducted in Term 3 for Year 6 students.

SELECTION CRITERIA

The selection criteria will include:

- An audition including aural skills testing
- An interview
- School reports
- Music reports

EXPECTATIONS OF SCHOLARSHIP HOLDERS

The expectations of successful Music Scholarship students are as follows:

- A positive commitment to their Music program
- A positive attitude to the College ethos
- An appropriate behaviour record
- An excellent attendance and punctuality record
- Excellent academic progress
- Excellent attendance and commitment to an approved College music ensemble
